Superintendent's Highlights

Dietrich School District is an exceptional rural school. The South-Central Idaho farming community of Dietrich has produced outstanding scholars and athletic teams. The district promotes positive and responsible personal behavior. An educational environment exist within the district where every child is valued and empowered to become a productive citizen.

Progress Towards Meeting District Goals

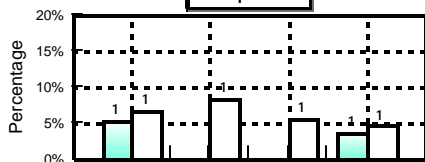

1999-00 Goals	Progress
Dietrich School District will utilize multi-media teaching stations with SMART BOARDS in each classroom.	24% of district classrooms have multi-media teaching stations with SMART BOARDS in each classroom.
Dietrich School District will continue staff development training in the integration of multi-media computer instruction in the classroom.	100% of district teachers have attained their Technology Competency Certificates.
Dietrich School District will improve school facilities.	A second bond election was held in November of 1999. It received a 61% positive vote with a much larger voter turnout than May's election. Since 67% is required for passage, the district is exploring other building-financing option.
